2008 YOUTH OF THE YEAR
WINNERS HONORED

FSBGC Youth of the Year” recipients were announced at the annual Awards Banquet held March 13. Those honored included: Hayden Redd, Blake Mitchem, Ashley Hobbs and La Nora Brown.

Youth of the Year recipients are judged on several categories, including: academic excellence, community involvement, moral values, obstacles overcome, family, essay, and Boys & Girls Club participation. All four young people were presented checks from the FSBGC Alumni & Friends Association president Lyn Caselman.

Hayden Redd is a senior at Southside High and plans to attend the University of Arkansas. He carries a 3.86 GPA and plans to major in Accounting. Redd has been a Club member for 12 years and has served as a Goldtrap-Gardner basketball coach. He was a member of the State Champion “Forsgren” baseball team in 2007.

Blake Mitchem, a mentor for the “Lean On Me” mentoring program at Stephens, is a senior at Northside High where he carries a 3.09 GPA. He plans to attend UCA and major in Kinesiology. Blake was a member of the NHS Grizzly team that won the State Basketball title in 2007. He represented the FSBGC in the State Youth of the Year contest in North Little Rock on April 18.

Ashley Hobbs was named “most valuable player” in the State Oklahoma Basketball high school tourney. She led Pocola High to a State championship. She has volunteered as a “Lean On Me” mentor and has coached at the Evans unit for the past 3 years.

La Nora Brown, a senior at Southside High, plans on joining the Air Force. Brown represented the FSBGC at the Boys & Girls Clubs of America national Keystone Conference in Anaheim. She’s been a valuable volunteer at the Jeffrey unit for the past 4 years and has been a finalist in the Marilyn Foster Essay contest.

Fort Smith Classic PGA Golf Event
To Include a “FREE” Concert

As one of the 5 charities for the 2008 Fort Smith Classic, Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club officials invite everyone to participate in this years PGA TOUR event, May 5-11 at picturesque Hardscrabble Country Club. On May 6, the event will host Grammy award singer and musician Ricky Skaggs at the Riverfront Pavilion. The “free concert” is sponsored by Cox Communications.

In it’s 11th year, the Fort Smith Classic shines brightly as one of the best stops on the Nationwide Tour. Come watch the pros play or join us for one of the other amazing events associated with the tourney. Proceeds benefit the Beth Koprovic Memorial Charities to improve the lives of area children; Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club, Children’s Emergency Shelter, Girls Inc., First Tee and the Children’s Service League.

To participate as a volunteer or sponsor, contact the Fort Smith Classic office at 479-782-3041. The PGA golf event has benefited the FSBGC for the past 10 years.

Club Mourns Death of Jim Gentry

Former Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club executive director Jim Gentry, 62, of Rogers, passed away Tuesday, April 1, 2008, in Bentonville. Jim was born Nov. 25, 1945, in Fort Smith to James and Eula Gentry. Jim spent the majority of his life involved with youth programs through the Boys & Girls Club and Babe Ruth Baseball.

Jim was executive director of the Fort Smith Boys Club from 1971 to 1984. Prior to that position, he was the executive director of the Benton Boys Club from 1969-1970. Jim also worked at the Jeffrey, Evans and Wheeler units during the late 1960’s.

Gentry served as a city councilman while living in Rogers, Arkansas during the early 1990’s. While living in Northwest Arkansas, he was employed by Alltel. Because of lingering health problems, he moved to St. Louis where he lived for four years awaiting a heart transplant. He moved back to Northwest Arkansas in 2006 when his health deteriorated and he was no longer transplant eligible. Jim served in the Arkansas Air National Guard and was former State Commissioner of Babe Ruth baseball.

He is survived by his daughter, Tammy Elkon and her husband, Shawn, along with two grandsons, Alex Nichols (4 years old) and Maxwell Dodson (1 year old) of San Antonio. Memorial contributions can be made to the “Jim Gentry Memorial” at the Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club, 4905 North “O” Street, Fort Smith, AR 72904.

KIWANIS SUMMER CAMP
SET FOR MAY 31 – JUNE 5

Registrations are being accepted for the annual Kiwanis Boys Camp to be held May 31–June 5 at Dwight Mission. For the past 70 years, Kiwanis Boys Camp has provided the “free” week long camping experience for boys ages 8-11. Applications are available at all four FSBGC locations.

 Volunteers from the Kiwanis Club provide the entire camping experience at no cost to participants. Campers will learn the basics of hiking, canoeing, fishing, swimming and several other outdoor activities.

Kiwanis Camp was held for years at Lake Fort Smith and then moved to Fort Chaffee. This is the third year the camp will be held at Dwight Mission, which is a conference center that sits on 176 acres. Kiwanis members hope to relocate the camp to Lake Fort Smith in 2009.

CHEWY CAFÉ
A BIG HIT AT CLUB

FSBGC members are enjoying the newly formed “Chewy Café” program which promotes wellness and good health. The Chewy Café is an exciting new learning tool focusing on nutrition, cooking skills, language arts, science, math and writing. The program is designed to be used within the Boys & Girls Club.

Chewy Café consists of a curriculum, DVD’s and mini cookbooks. Chef Mack offers up some fun and creative ways to prepare snacks and meals. Club members can also visit the Chewy Café website at www.chewycafe.com for fun games and activities. There are special programs online for parents concerning wellness and healthy lifestyles.

LEAN ON ME MENTORS
MAKING POSITIVE IMPACT

They are the “true heros” of the Club, according to Lean On Me coordinator Kari Fenby. Volunteers for the FSBGC “Lean On Me” program will be recognized at a Lean On Me picnic in May. The program, which is similar to Big Brothers-Big Sisters, utilizes the leadership of volunteers who meet weekly at the Club with assigned members. For more information concerning the Lean On Me program, contact Kari Fenby at 646-9519.

National Keystone Conference – representing the FSBGC at the 2008 Boys & Girls Club national Teen conference in Anaheim, CA were Roneka Jackson, Shawnika Jones, La Nora Brown and Cervonn Whitemore. Also pictured is Romero Brown, Boys & Girls Clubs of America director of Teen Services.
Since 1958, Jerry Kerwin has been a dedicated member of the Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club board of directors. The organization recently honored Kerwin with a special “50 Year Award” recognizing his achievements at the Club. Kerwin served as board secretary for 49 years.

Kerwin was inducted into the FSBGC Hall of Fame in 1993. “We are so appreciative of his dedicated leadership and support” said FSBGC board president Dr. Cole Goodman. “He is a very special individual” he added.

As the long-time owner of Kerwin Athletic Goods, he sponsored the American Legion baseball team at the Boys & Girls Club for 41 years. He sold the store to Larry & Kay Phillips in 1991. The Phillips family have continued sponsorship of the Kerwin Team.

Jerry Kerwin coached the Optimist baseball team in the midget league (now Cal Ripken) for 30 years. He was volunteer coach of the Rams football team at the club for 6 years. Kerwin was also the chairman of the Golden Gloves boxing from 1951-1963. His civic participation includes past membership in the Downtown Optimist Club.

The late Clarence Higgins regarded Kerwin as the most valuable volunteer the Club has ever had. James Wagoner, a FSBGC board member, said “Jerry Kerwin is the most humble man I’ve ever met. The Boys and Girls Club is very fortunate to have Kerwin involved.”
