2017 Awards Dinner Honors Outstanding Youth and Volunteers

Guest speaker Rex Nelson helped honor special Volunteer of the Year and Youth of the Year winners at the annual FSBGC Awards Dinner on March 15 at the Evans gymnasium. The event was sponsored by the Alumni & Friends Association. KFSM TV-5 news anchor Daren Bobb served as emcee.

Youth of the Year awards were presented to Matthew Jackson (Stephens), Tanner Cross (Evans), Jordan Enoch (Jeffrey) and Joey DeSchryver (Goldtrap). The awards are based on community service, Club participation, academic achievement, public speaking ability and interviews. Each Youth of the Year recipient received a $250 cash award from the Alumni & Friends Association.

Long-time volunteer and sponsor Keith Evans was presented with the “Champion of Youth” award. Evans has been a Club volunteer for 39 years and has served as a Lean On Me mentor, baseball coach, basketball coach, soccer coach, Alumni board member and sponsor. He first joined the Club at age 6.

The “Sponsor of the Year” award was presented to McDonalds. Jim Hadley and Michael Hadley accepted the award on behalf of their restaurant franchise. McDonalds has been a Club sponsor for the past 37 years, including football, basketball, baseball, Lean On Me mentoring and the annual Alumni Golf tournament.

Volunteer of the Year awards were presented to Leon Andrews (Evans), Jackie Flake (Jeffrey), Chris Smith (Goldtrap) and Shayla Clark (Stephens). The four honorees were recognized for their outstanding service at the Club. Overall, more than 400 volunteers are involved at the Boys & Girls Club annually.

During the program, Rex Nelson shared stories about the importance of mentors. He gave personal accounts in how role models helped shape his life. Nelson applauded FSBGC volunteers for their commitment of time and energy in helping guide young people. The annual Awards Dinner has been a tradition at the Club since the early 1980’s.

LOWE’S GRANT PROJECT COMPLETED AT STEPHENS

A $50,000 renovation grant project sponsored by Lowe’s has recently been completed at the Stephens Boys & Girls Club. “We are excited to have new program space at the Club” said Stephens unit director Roneka Grooms. “Having a designated Teen area and Music room is a great addition” she added.

The project included two new program areas, a renovated storage garage with upstairs space, new sidewalks, security cameras, computer equipment and a refurbished front counter area. The converted program space will be used for teens, STEM activities and music instruction.

“Renovation Across the Nation” is the theme for the Lowe’s projects. A partnership between Boys & Girls Clubs of America and Lowe’s has provided for 50 (one in each state) Boys & Girls Clubs to receive funding for renovation projects.

Locally, Lowe’s employees have helped the FSBGC through volunteering for the United Way Day of Caring at the Jeffrey and Stephens units. Projects have included painting, landscaping and maintenance. The Stephens Boys & Girls Club was originally built in 1980. It was damaged by a tornado in 1996, before being rebuilt and rededicated in 1997. The facility is named after the late E.S. Stephens.

ALUMNI MEMBERS PROVIDE KEY SUPPORT FOR LEAN ON ME MENTORING

Mentoring young people in need is the mission of the Lean On Me program at the Fort Smith Boys & Girls Club. With both financial support and manpower, the Alumni & Friends Association continues to help sponsor the program.

During school months, volunteer mentors meet once per week with their mentee at the Club. Once a month there is a group activity. Some of the special group activities have included: UAFS basketball game, skating, bowling and mini-golf.

“Alumni members like Dalton Person and Davin Chitwood have been terrific mentors” said Kari Fenby, Lean On Me coordinator. Fenby expressed her appreciation for long-time volunteer mentors Bobby Needham and Don Moon for helping make the program a success. “We’re thankful for dedicated support of all our volunteers and sponsors” she added.
